TO THE PUBLIC.

Our second edition of the Indianapolis City Directory is herewith presented to the public.

As we have had the advantage of two distinct and separate canvasses of the city, which were diligently compared together, we feel confident that it will be found reliable in an unusual degree.

We respectfully call attention to the statistics of our city, which, it will be observed, form a new and highly interesting feature. On page 287 will be found a business summary, showing the number of citizens engaged in each separate branch of trade, and in the various professions.

To those gentlemen who have kindly furnished us with information relating to the various societies, institutions, &c., we tender many thanks.

To all who have had the kindness and good sense to advertise in the Indianapolis Directory, we would say: may you soon have to extend the dimensions of your store-houses and incur the expense of employing additional clerks to wait upon your thronging customers.

We have to congratulate our advertising patrons upon the favorable circumstances which gives them the benefit of the circulation of both editions. Our friends have done nobly by us. "As ye have sown, so may ye reap."

Respectfully,
SUTHERLAND & McEVoy.

BACON'S Mercantile College,

NORTH-WEST CORNER SIXTH AND WALNUT STREETS,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

"A knowledge of the Science of Business, as well as its art, is necessary to the complete education of the Merchant. A knowledge of the theory of the profession gives stability to character. It gives wisdom in practice, and traces out consequences by the light of experience. * * * * A counting-house education will be of advantage to every man, whatever his future occupation may be. To farmers it will teach business habits and attention to accounts, which will give them increased interest and success in their business; to the mechanic it will teach order, system, management, the practical value of Book-Keeping, and remedy many of their deficiencies; to the professional man it will afford a clearer insight into the practical operation of business affairs, and giving them facilities in obtaining practice."—FREEDLEY.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

BACON'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE.—The attention of young men who design devoting themselves to Mercantile pursuits, is directed to the advertisement of Bacon's Mercantile College. This is one of the best institutions of the kind in the country. A scientific knowledge of Book-Keeping and Commercial Law is indispensable to a first class business man. In addition to the thorough course of instruction embraced in the catalogue, we understand that Mr. J. H. Doty, one of the leading professors connected with the College, will shortly introduce, as a branch of Mercantile Education, Thompson's Celebrated Method for Detecting Counterfeit Money.—Lafayette Daily Courier, Ind., December 19th, 1859.

This whole Institution is undoubtedly the most elegant and finished establishment, for its purpose, in the world.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Bacon, and the Institution which bears his name, have grown up with our city, and it is a source of gratification to observe that liberal enterprise and well directed energy have met their reward, in the prosperity and renown which his College has attained.—Cincinnati Daily Gazette.

Mr. Bacon is so well and favorably known to the commercial community of this city, and the entire West, as a competent and successful teacher of Book-Keeping, and every other branch requisite to a finished Mercantile Education, that it would be superogatory in us to set forth his high claims to public favor. We will say, however, he is eminently worthy of the patronage of those who wish to enter a counting room.—Daily Cincinnati Commercial.

Mr. Bacon is unrivalled as a teacher, a diploma from his College in Cincinnati, is required as a sine qua non in obtaining a situation in the best Mercantile Houses in large cities.—Chillicothe Ancient Metropolis.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The College Rooms have been refitted in magnificent style, and the Course of Instruction greatly improved by the introduction of all the latest and most approved methods of Keeping Books, making the Course here given more thorough, comprehensive, and practical than in any similar Institution in the United States, embracing all branches requisite for fitting young men for the active duties of the Counting House.

DOUBLE ENTRY BOOK-KEEPING

Is thoroughly taught in its practical application to every department of business. And in addition to the usual course of studies is included

BACON'S NEW METHOD OF KEEPING BOOKS BY DOUBLE ENTRY,

Which will save half the usual amount of labor, and is accurate and readily comprehended. All interested in the Science of Accounts are invited to call and examine this new method, and judge for themselves.

PENMANSHIP

Is carefully observed. Mercantile Forms are thoroughly explained, and full and familiar instruction is given in

MERCANTILE MATHEMATICS,

Included in which is a beautiful and reliable mode of computing Interest, introduced by Mr. J. H. Doty. It has the merit of being unsurpassed in brevity, and is certainly withal, the easiest method known.

Besides Lectures on the Political Economy of Trade, Banking and Currency, there is a full, regular, systematic and practical course of instruction in

COMMERCIAL LAW.

By an intelligent and diligent student the course may be completed in from eight to twelve weeks, and on graduation a beautiful diploma is awarded.

Indiana American,

T. A. GOODWIN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Issued Wednesday and Saturday of each Week.

Having been in successful operation since 1832, the American is not only among the oldest papers in Indiana, but has by far the largest circulation of any other paper published in the State, except it may be one or two religious papers. While it battles manfully against moral, political and social wrongs, and always stands up for the right, its claims as a good family paper, and also a good newspaper, renders it a favorite in most of families.

Apart from its miscellany it devotes a large portion to

AGRICULTURE,

Under the editorial supervision of one of the best practical farmers in the State. Publishing no Daily, it has a city and suburban circulation greater than the combined daily and weekly circulation of any paper published in Indianapolis. It furnishes, therefore, a superior medium of advertising, at most reasonable rates.

To The Ladies.

MRS. M. S. THOMPSON,
PHYSICIAN & SURGEON,

Would respectfully say to the ladies of this city and vicinity, that the long experience she has had in connection with the formerly extensive practice of her husband, Dr. H. Thompson, has enabled her to treat disease in all its various forms, both acute and chronic, successfully; and also skillfully to assist woman in the most trying and perilous situation of her life. As Mrs. T. has never been so unfortunate as to lose any mother in parturition, and is not only competent, but has the facilities to treat the most difficult cases, with but one female assistant, she would therefore cheerfully invite all those who may wish for further information or acquaintance, to call on her at her residence.

Mrs. T., separate from the instructions she has received at a Medical Institution, has studied with and received private instruction from our most celebrated accoucheurs, especially in the safe administration of chloroform, in every case, without exception—in regard to which she will be happy to give satisfactory reference and testimonials. As her time and attention is given exclusively to her profession, she will be in readiness to attend calls day and night, at her office and residence, No. 20 North Illinois Street, first building north of the Bates House.

OFFICE OF AUDITOR OF STATE, INDIANA, }
Indianapolis, February 13th, 1860.

TO THE PEOPLE OF INDIANA:

The "Hartford Fire Insurance Company," having complied with the law of Indiana, by filing in this Office a statement of its condition on the first day of January, 1860, and having invited an examination of its affairs by this Department, I, John W. Dodd, Auditor of the State of Indiana, hereby certify that I have made a personal and thorough examination of the books and assets of the Company, at their Office in the City of Hartford, Connecticut, and that the Company own and have in their possession in cash, and in securities convertible at pleasure, nearly One Million of Dollars, applicable to the payment of losses—an amount corresponding with their official statement of January last. The Hartford Fire Insurance Company has been in existence for half a century. The high character of its officers for experience and probity—the promptness and fidelity with which it has met all its engagements—justly entitles it to the highest rank among the Insurance Companies of the country, and commends it to the patronage of the people of Indiana.

JOHN W. DODD, Auditor of State.

THE OPINION OF DR. BOYNTON,

As a sample of the numerous testimonials in our possession, we append the opinion of Dr. Boynton, the celebrated lecturer on Geology, Electricity, &c.

INDIANAPOLIS, January 2, 1860.

Having examined Munson's Copper Tubular Lightning Rod with Spiral Flanges, I am free to say that it is the best Rod, by far, that I ever saw. Its chief points of superiority are, that it is Copper, which is one of the best conductors of electricity; it is Tubular, and thus a greater surface is obtained at a smaller cost than if solid; its Spiral Flanges stiffen the rod, and their rough edges dissipate the electricity, and therein is much better than if the surface was smooth; its connection is so complete that it is in effect a continuous rod. I am fully persuaded that when it is properly erected, it is a complete protection against the disasters produced by lightning.

We believe the above figures to be very nearly correct, but it will be readily perceived that in the hurry of our Canvass, it would be impossible to attend to the matter with that degree of care, necessary to insure perfect accuracy.

MANUFACTURIES.

It was designed to furnish a complete statement of the manufacturing interests of the city, and to this end considerable efforts were made by means of circulars, &c., to obtain the requisite materials; but, upon examination, we find that our returns are so meagre and incomplete that we could only present a partial view at best, and we therefore determined to defer the matter until the publication of the next edition, when we intend to take a different, and we hope more successful, method of obtaining the necessary facts and figures. However, we give below a business summary, showing at a glance the number engaged in the various professions and every department of industrial trade:
